

ROBBED (POV)

- There is a knock on my door. I go and open it and find two girls who I don't know standing there. The girls are wearing a black karate outfit, rolled up pants and sneakers.
- At the start the girls appear innocent and friendly and have come for help. They tell me that neither of their mobile phones are working and are asking if they can use my mobile phone to make an urgent call.
- As I look for it, Sonya attacks me and I fall to the ground. Katara quickly closes the door so no one outside can see what is about to happen to me.
- As I lie on the ground in pain and in shock, the girls take their jackets off and begin to beat me up. They, kick, stomp and trample me. I beg them to stop, but they don't care and tell me to keep quiet.
- After many blows, I am knocked unconscious.
- After waking up from unconsciousness, I find myself in another room. I then realise that my legs and hands are tied up and my mouth taped up.
- I start yelling for help, and struggle to escape, but Katara kicks me in the face and tells me to stay quiet.
- The girls reveal why they are here. They tell me that they have been spying on me for a while and know that I have a safe full of money hidden somewhere in this house, and they want it!
- I tell them I don't have such a thing, but they know I am lying. The girls tell me they will make me suffer until I tell the truth.
- Katara goes first. She, kicks, stomps, tramples, punches, and slaps me, one blow after another. She wants to know where the safe with the money is but I keep telling her I don't have such a thing.
- Unable to get the truth from me, Sonya decides to interrogate me instead. I continue to deny having such a thing, so she too beats me up.
- After being badly beaten and refusing to tell the truth, the girls discuss on whether to kill me instead.
- This scares me, so I beg them to remove the tape so I can tell them where it is. I explain to the girls which room it is and what the password is to go and unlock it.
- Sonya tells Katara to go and check. Katara goes and checks and comes back confirming she has found the safe with lots of money! They are both very happy.
- I beg the girls to let me go now that I told them the truth, but they think I will tell the police on them. Instead, they decide to beat me up, this time with the intention of killing me.
- As I lie on the ground, I beg them to let me go but they begin to stomp my face over and over again until I die.

